DELAWARE ASSOCIATION OF SCHOOL LIBRARIANS

2017-2018 Outstanding Library Media Specialist/School Librarian

DATE: November 21, 2017

The Delaware Association of School Librarians (DASL) is seeking nominations for Outstanding Library Media Specialist/School Librarian in the 2017-2018 school year. This award goes to a certified school librarian who demonstrates excellence in the field and is an active member of their school community.

School librarians can nominate themselves or can be nominated by supportive members of their school community. Requirements for the nomination portfolio are detailed in the attached rubric. Nomination portfolios are due on or before March 31, 2018, and can be submitted to Rachel West, DASL President, either via email or USPS (contact information below).

The award can be presented at a school board meeting, special assembly, or at the Annual End of Year Dinner for DASL held in May.

The DASL Executive Board appreciates your time and consideration in recognizing outstanding school librarians. If you have any questions or need assistance, please contact Rachel West.

Thank you!
