Step 1: Choose Your Membership Type and Level

A. Individual Member

$35.00 Professional

$15.00 Paraprofessional

$10.00 Student

$15.00 Trustee or Retired

(To join the Friends of the Delaware Libraries (FODL), see this page.)

Note that joining FODL does not automatically include membership with DLA.)

B. Institutional Member -- Does your library provide DLA memberships for its staff? Consider an Institutional membership!

Benefits of Becoming an Institutional Member:

Institutional Memberships include unlimited job advertising on DLA's website and further encourage participation with DLA. Sustaining and Substantial levels include library staff memberships (up to Professional Level Membership), with no additional charge. DLA members enjoy reduced registration fees for conference and other events, listserv access, involvement as leaders, and more.

Be sure to submit staff information on separate membership forms as part of your library's institutional membership, if applicable.

Select your library's institutional membership level from the following:

$35.00 Regular (no additional DLA memberships)

$50.00 Sustaining, provides 2 DLA memberships.

Complete Staff Membership Information on separate forms.

$100.00 Substantial provides 4 DLA memberships

Complete Staff Membership information on separate forms.

Step 2: Individual Memberships -Choose your preferred Divisions and Committees

Divisions and Committees target the varied but unique goals of library sectors.

- DLA Divisions: (See the DLA website under “Divisions” for descriptions):
Membership in one DLA Division is included in dues. Please add $5.00 for each additional Division.

College & Research (CRLD)
Public Library (PLD)

School Library (DASL)
Youth Services (YSD)

- Committees: DLA Committees are actively involved with important special areas of library advocacy, publicity, history and more, and give you the opportunity to experience specific aspects of librarianship. As with Division involvement, there are many leadership opportunities, too.
You allowed to participate with as many committees as you would like at no additional cost. For details about each committee’s role, see the DLA website for Committees and for descriptions, the Handbook/Bylaws.
